

David Thiel Presents:

WHISPERING MINDS

When was the last time something truly magical happened to you?

This is an invitation to transport your next event to a place where regular rules don't apply, where memories take on a life of their own and wonderful things hidden in the shadows can sometimes be coaxed into the light.

This is your invitation to take your next gathering on an adventure you will always remember...to witness firsthand and participate in effects depicting clairvoyance, telepathy and mind reading.

This is your invitation to join David Thiel, one of Canada's top corporate mentalists, for an 'up-close and personal' evening of Whispering Minds. It's an event where your guests, along with their thoughts and memories, are the stars of the show and you will be left wondering if what you've just seen can possibly be real.

"There's nothing occult about what I do," David says. "Nothing spooky. There's me. Your group and the memories we make together. This event is about taking my audience on a journey."

That journey is an intimate event called "Whispering Minds." It is split into two parts:

The Whispering Minds Show: an event your whole group will experience. This 30-45 minute performance features David interacting with your audience, sharing the effects he has performed for Fortune 500 companies, on grandstands and before hundreds of corporate and convention audiences all over Canada since 1990 along with new effects that have been custom designed for small groups.

The difference? It's intimate. Your guests aren't watching from the audience. They can be as much a part of the show as they choose to be. This is a performance with much of David's warm trademark humour. But ultimately, it's about brushing up against wonder.

You'll learn the circumstances of a woman's first kiss. You'll see two audience members exchange thoughts without speaking. You'll witness seemingly impossible predictions. You'll learn fascinating things about the other people in the audience who share your life.

The second segment of your event is...

One on One: is up close and personal: ten six-minute personal sessions with David. Your guests can come singly or as a couple. Each guest can decide how they want to spend their time. Having just watched the show, some will be curious about what it feels like to have their mind read. The more adventurous may choose to have one of David's Impressionism Readings. Whatever their choice, this is sure to be the highlight of the night for some of your guests.

"I don't do anything in my show – or in the private sessions after the show – that anyone else couldn't do with the same training, methods, techniques...and healthy dose of intuition. Experience is a factor too. I've been doing this a long time. But I still never know what's going to happen in any given show. That's why I really enjoy the small Mind Games evenings. We have a chance to spend time together and get to know each other."

Show Notes:

A quieter environment is best. For the Whispering Minds Show, your guests should be comfortably seated, so that everyone can see the performance area.

The One on One sessions ideally should be in a private area. What happens during these sessions can sometimes be quite personal.

The 10 one-on-one appointments should be in an area equipped with three chairs since a maximum of two guests can be accommodated at a time. It is important that your guests know when their appointments are scheduled. (You will receive a sign-up sheet in your pre-event email.)

To keep the intimate atmosphere of the performance, a maximum of 15 guests are allowed.

Covid Notes

None of the of the Whispering Minds show effects involve physical touch. In a few of the demonstrations David may hand the participant a small item like a piece of paper, a book or a pad...with the consent of the participant. All items have been sanitized prior to each performance. Hand sanitizer is also available on-site. David does not wear a mask when performing. Guests are free to choose to keep theirs on or leave them off.

"It may have been one of the most amazing experiences of my life. I wasn't sure what to expect. I'd never seen a mentalist before. But my friends are still talking about the show, wondering how you did those things. The most memorable part of the night for me was the reading you did for me after the show. We'll be booking you again."

WHERE DOES "WHISPERING MINDS" COME FROM?

David has been entertaining corporate, convention and grandstand audiences for over 30 years. (Spend a little time on his website.)

The arrival of Covid, the lockdowns and the ban on large gatherings took the entire entertainment industry by surprise and created challenges and opportunities for performers.

"Every professional performer got a shock in the space of one two-week period in this past spring. We watched as all of our shows were cancelled or rescheduled...one by one. No one really knew what was happening," says David. "I spent a few months at home, waiting for things to get back to 'normal.' I gradually realized that this WAS the new normal."

That is why David created Whispering Minds. He has re-designed and re-thought his show, fully adapting it for performance to much smaller audiences.

"I love people. I love performing. So, I decided to get back to the kind of show that I've always enjoyed: small groups. Intimate evenings. There's a special kind of magic that is created in environments like that. I can perform material that simply don't work for grandstand audiences, or shows where there are hundreds of people watching," he says. "These events are special."

"Whispering Minds" is the perfect option for groups that want to try something very different. It is designed for small office parties, private get-togethers and Ladies Only events.
